

Nena Escobar Salas Camp Joy 2026

Hey everyone! My name is Nena Escobar Salas, and I will be serving as a summer missionary this year! Here's a little bit about me: This coming fall, I will be attending my first year at Central Community College. I am pursuing a career in Accounting and I want to eventually become a CPA. I attend the McCook E-Free Church. Camp Joy is one of the plans I always look forward to in the summer. I have had a very good experience growing up at camp, and I want to have the same affect on my campers like my staff had for me. Seeing all of the kids and teaching them about the gospel is something I am very passionate about.

Serving at camp is something I will always enjoy. Meeting new kids and being able to make any impact on them has always been meaningful to me. Camp is all about getting to know the gospel no matter what school age you're at. These kids deserve to know the gospel and that Jesus loves them so much. Speaking from experience, for some this is the only place they get the opportunity to learn. Being a staff member not only lets us teach these kids, but together we grow closer to each other and closer to God. Some weeks are hard and test our patience, but at the end of the week we can look back on the opportunity that we gave the kids because we let the Lord speak through us. Your support, both financially and spiritually, will help me and my fellow counselors continue to spread the Word to these kids.

There are a few ways you can help us out:

1. We could always use prayer. No matter who it is for (Garrett, Summer Missionaries, etc.), we ask that you pray for camp to run smoothly so we can take care of the kids as best as possible.
2. If you feel called, financial support is appreciated. As summer missionaries, we raise our own support. Because I'm going into my first year of college, I need to be sure I can meet my responsibilities. There are a few ways you can donate.
